The keynote address, a pivotal moment of the occasion, was delivered by Prof. N. Vinod Chandra Menon, founder Member of the National Disaster Management Authority (NDMA), Government of India. The inaugural function reached its conclusion with a vote of appreciation extended by Ms. Krishnendhu K.B, Assistant Professor in the Department of Social Work at St. Joseph College (Autonomous) Irinjalakuda.

After a brief tea break, the technical sessions commenced. The inaugural presentation was delivered by Prof. N. Vinod Chandra Menon, who enlightened the audience on the strategies employed by the Global North and Global South to address the challenges posed by climate change, extreme events, and conflicts. Following this, Ms. Maite Rodriguez Blandon from Fundacion Guatemala, Central America, shared insights into Women-led Development in disaster risk reduction.

The subsequent session was conducted by Dr. Maureen Fordham, a Professorial Research Associate specializing in gender and disaster at University College London. She delved into the crucial topic of "Disaster Risk Reduction and Climate Change Adaptation in a Changing World." The diverse range of topics covered in these sessions provided attendees with valuable perspectives on global challenges and potential solutions. The next session was handled by Dr. Roman Tandlich, associate professor Rhodes University, South Africa on the topic "Drought Preparedness and Response a Case Study from South Africa". The first day of the international conference was concluded by the vote tanks, which were delivered by Ms. Ragi M.R, assistant professor, Department of Social Work St Joseph's College (autonomous) Irinjalakuda.

The second day began with the welcome speech of Ms. Mary Amrutha K.C Assistant professor of the department of social work St. Joseph's College (autonomous) Irinjalakuda. The first session was handled by Dr. S. Sreekumar (disaster risk management expert, KILA, Thrissur) on the topic "Ecosystem-based approaches to Disaster Risk Reduction". Mr. Roy Alex, an expert in the field of disaster management initiated the session with the crucial aspects of disaster management focusing particularly on the Kerala floods and highlighted the instrumental role played by ESAF in assisting the affected population, including efforts in recruiting volunteers, emphasizing the importance of social workers in disaster management, and shed light on their pivotal role in providing support, coordination, and relief during such challenging times.

Dr. Jyothi Krishna, Associate Professor, Department of Disaster Management, Loyola College Trivandrum handled the next session on “Social work ethics and human rights in disasters”.

This informative session began by referring to the fundamental human rights and the significance of the humanitarian approach in disaster management regarding social work ethics.

Followed by Ms. Susmi Sunny, hazard analyst KSDMA, Thrissur shed light on “Community resilience and capacity building”. The session emphasized the necessity of community resilience that came to public attention, especially after the occurrence of the Kerala Flood in 2018-19. The next session was governed by Mr. Shailendra Yashwanth, an independent environmental photojournalist and climate communications, Consultant senior advisor to climate action network South Asia. The entire session focused on the importance of Social and Mass media for communication in disasters.

The valedictory function of the conference was held on 28th February 2024 in which the valedictory address was given by Dr. Joy Elamon, Director General of KILA. Best paper awards and prizes of Poster-making competitions were distributed at the function. A lifetime time achievement award was also given to Mr. Paul Thomas, Founder of ESAF for his dedicated services in Disaster Management.

Nearly 230 participants attended the conference including students, academicians, and practitioners from various parts of India. The paper presentation sessions were also conducted through online and offline mode which had around 23 teams with 30 participants. A poster-making competition based on the theme ‘Disaster Management’ was also held on 15th February as part of the INICIO 2024: international conference.

About the Organizers

St. Joseph's College (Autonomous), Irinjalakuda, Kerala, India is a college for women, affiliated to the University of Calicut and managed by St. Joseph's Educational Society of the Congregation of Holy Family, founded in 1964. The College was awarded 'Autonomy' in March 2016 and was certified as a 'College with Potential for Excellence' by UGC in April 2016. The College, which is an answer to the ever increasing demand for higher education among young ladies, re-accredited in the fourth cycle at A++ level with 3.66 in 2023 by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) - an autonomous institution under the U.G.C.

Department of Social Work:

The inception of the Department of Social Work was on 20th November 2002, offering Postgraduate Programme (MSW), and added Bachelor's Degree (BSW) in 2014. The Department is deep rooted in the great demand of quality and value based higher education, with multi-faceted action plan by giving importance to the mission of our college, "to groom academically and globally competent women".

Rhodes University, South Africa

Rhodes University, founded in 1904; the University has a well-established reputation for academic excellence. Rhodes University's vision is to be an outstanding internationally-respected academic institution which proudly affirms its African identity and which is committed to democratic ideals, academic freedom, rigorous scholarship, sound moral values and social responsibility.

Kerala State Disaster Management Authority

State Disaster Management Authorities are statutory bodies constituted under the Disaster Management Act, 2005 (Central Act 53 of 2005). Kerala State Disaster Management Authority is a statutory non-autonomous body under the Chairmanship of the Chief Minister of Kerala.
