Event date	13 th October 2023
Event venue	Community hall, Aaralam farm, Iritty Taluk
Details of the event	For the tribal population, a training session and a mock drill were held in observance of the International Day for Disaster Risk Reduction. Iritty Taluk was tasked with planning the function, and they decided to have it at Aaralam Farm. The process involved several departments. Classes were given by the fire officer. Following the interactive session, a fire mock drill was held. The mock drill involved representatives from multiple departments, including the DDMA, Taluk, Police, Fire Force, Forestry, Health, and Media. Volunteers from civil defense also participated in the occasion. A poster-making competition was held for high school students within the district. The competition's theme was 'Our Disaster Management'. A panel was formed to choose the first three positions out of the 32 entries that we received.
