

Event Name	Disaster Management and involvement of children in DM
Event date	30th September 2024
Event venue	Government Vocational Higher Secondary School (GVHSS) Ayyanthole, Thrissur
Details of the event .	I had the opportunity to lead a session on Disaster Management and involvement of children in DM for school students of Government Vocational Higher Secondary School (GVHSS) Ayyanthole, Thrissur on 30.09.2024. The programme aimed to create awareness among students regarding various types of disasters, preparedness measures, and the vital role children can play in disaster risk reduction and community resilience. The session covered topics such as the basics of disaster management, types of hazards, disaster preparedness at the individual level, and the importance of children's participation in safety drills and awareness activities. Interactive discussions and real-life examples were used to help students understand how their actions can contribute to safety during emergencies. The session enhanced their understanding of disaster management concepts and inspired them to take proactive roles in ensuring safety for themselves and their communities.
